Please rank your top five (5) preferences with 1 being your highest preference and 5 being your lowest preference.
If more than five (5) communities and/or environments interest you, rank all preferences that apply.

Special Interest Learning Communities

____ ConneXtions
This living learning community is a coed first year residential environment that encourages students to connect with their peers, faculty, staff, and to participate in various activities. It offers a series of programs designed to help students successfully transition to EKU.

____ Colonel’s First
Residents in the Colonels First community are the first in their family to work towards completing a degree in Higher Education. Students who are the first in their family to attend college often need additional support when it comes to experiences that are specific to the transition from High school to college. This community will offer focused support and social events to help residents be as successful as possible. Preference will be given to first generation candidates.

____ Fine & Creative Arts
This living learning community is dedicated to all those students who are interested in the various arts. It is encouraged for those students with a fine arts background to apply.

____ Next Steps
This living learning community is for students who have completed 48 hours of college coursework. Residents have the opportunity to participate in the Next Steps Series which is dedicated to helping students take the “next steps” after their college careers including employment, graduate school, and/or family life. Applicants MUST be classified as at least a JUNIOR.

____ Outdoor Pursuits
This living learning community is for those who enjoy outdoor activities; hiking, skiing, camping, fishing, rock climbing, etc.

____ Sophomore Overdrive
This living learning community is dedicated to providing an environment to help with the transition of the sophomore year. Students must have completed 30 hours of EKU college coursework or have successfully completed two full semesters to be a part of this community. Applicants MUST be classified as at least a JUNIOR.

____ S.W.O.O.S.H. (Students Working Out On Staying Healthy)
This living learning community is a health and wellness community for students who enjoy sports, exercising, intramural sports, and healthy living. This floor is dedicated to organizing competitive campus sports teams and to maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

Academic and Major Related Learning Communities

____ ASL American Sign Language Floor – The ASL floor welcomes students who are deaf, hard of hearing and/or fluent or learning ASL to participate in this new and unique community. Students will be immersed in American Sign Language by using it in common spaces and will participate in programs focused around deaf culture and student interests. To determine fluency students must be an ASL native speaker, have passed ASL 102 and be in higher level ASL courses or take a fluency test with ASLIE. Applicants MUST be fluent in ASL.

____ Education
This living learning community is comprised of both female and male education students interested in majors, minors and connecting with their peers. Residents can look forward to faculty interaction, volunteer opportunities with local youth, study groups, arts and crafts nights, and other fun group activities. Applicants MUST be an education major.

Continued ➔
Flight Deck-Aviation
This living learning community is for aviation majors. You will help plan weekend activities, and study sessions with the help of investors. Applicants MUST be aviation majors to be eligible.

Honors Housing
This living learning community serves students enrolled in the EKU Honors Program. Residents live close to other students in their courses making it easier to form discussion and study groups, enjoy social activities, and spend time with faculty and staff outside of the classroom. Residents must be members of the Honors program to live in this community, including RAs. Applicants MUST be a participant in the honors program.

Justice & Safety
This living learning community is a special interest floor consisting of females and males interested in criminal justice, fire safety, and/or related fields. The activities on this floor will be related to the fields that fall under the college of justice and safety’s focus. Applicants MUST have a major within the College of Justice and Safety.

NOVA
The NOVA living learning community will help their residents engage in activities that promote their academic and personal success. Activities are designed to connect NOVA freshmen and upperclassmen to each other and to the campus community. Applicants MUST be a participant in the NOVA program.

PGA/PGM
This living learning community is a special interest floor that serves as a major focused community for male students who enjoy and are involved with the professional golf management program. The community is dedicated to those who have an active interest and desire to participate with the sport of golf.

Non-Living Learning Community Environments

Academic Year Round Housing
Although not a living learning community, this environment stays open for the entire academic year. Resident Assistant responsibilities are extended through Thanksgiving, Semester, and Spring Breaks.

R.O.T.C. (Reserve Officer Training Corps)
Although not a living learning community, this is an environment reserved for individuals who are participants in the R.O.T.C. program while enrolled at EKU.

Upperclassmen Housing
Although not a living learning community, this environment would work with upperclassmen residents.

Prefers a Non Living Learning Community
This option is for candidates who do not prefer to work with any Living Learning Community and/or specialized environment.

PLEASE REMEMBER – Preferences are considered when determining placements BUT are NOT guaranteed.